What is WAEYC

WAEYC is the Westchester Association for the Education of Young Children. Our goal is to support quality early childhood education by providing support, training and a forum for those working in the field to network and share ideas. WAEYC is the Westchester affiliate of the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC), striving to influence local, state, and federal policy issues on behalf of young children.

You can also visit the WAEYC website for more information!

CHOOSING A PRE-SCHOOL PROGRAM

In taking that first step into the school world, remember there are no set rules for selecting an early childhood program. The choices are numerous, varied and confusing – and good schools come in different forms. In order to match your child to the most appropriate program, visit several schools and use the following checklist provided by the National Association for the Education of Young Children

NAEYC's Quality Checklist provides families with a shorthand way to know whether or not a program provides excellent care and education. High-quality programs should meet the following standards, as outlined in the NAEYC Accreditation system:

1. Promote positive relationships for all children and adults
2. Implement a curriculum that fosters all areas of child development – cognitive, emotional, language, physical, and social
3. Use developmentally, culturally, and linguistically appropriate and effective teaching approaches
4. Provide ongoing assessments of child progress
5. Promote the nutrition and health of children and staff
6. Employ and support qualified teaching staff
7. Establish and maintain collaborative relationships with families
8. Establish and maintain relationships and use resources of the community
9. Provide a safe and healthy physical environment
10. Implement strong program management policies that result in high-quality service

OTHER BASIC CONSIDERATIONS

1. Is the school close enough to home to fit comfortably into your daily family routine?
2. Are the program fees within the family budget? Are scholarships available?
3. Have you heard recommendations of the program from other parents?

The Early Childhood Direction Center (ECDC) is a free, confidential service available to provide parents and professionals with neutral information and assistance regarding services for children with known or suspected special needs, from birth to five years of age, who reside in Westchester, Putnam and Rockland counties. We are one of fourteen ECDCs located throughout New York State, each under contract with the New York State Education Department (NYSED), through the Office of Special Education

Please contact The Early Childhood Direction Center for a description and diagram of the timeline of the steps in the EI or CPSE process for referral, evaluation, eligibility determination, and services. You may also contact them for the phone number to the Early Intervention intake office at Westchester County Department of Health, for the name and contact information of your school district's CPSE administrator, known as the Chairperson, and for a copy of the approved CPSE evaluation site list. On the following two pages you will find an overview and guidelines for accessing free and available services for CHILDREN from BIRTH to FIVE YEARS of AGE

EARLY INTERVENTION PROGRAM (EI)
(For children birth through 2 years)

EI services are available to eligible children from birth through 2 years of age. A child may be directly referred by his or her parent or guardian, or by a professional working with the child and family. (Below is the phone number to contact the intake office at the Westchester County Department of Health.)

After the referral, the family is assigned an Initial Service Coordinator (ISC) who will contact the parent(s) as soon as possible. S/he will assist the parent(s) in selecting a State-approved evaluation site to perform a Multi-Disciplinary Evaluation. The evaluation results and the needs of the family, in addition to the informed clinical opinion of the evaluators, are used to determine the child's eligibility for EI services.

Next, a meeting is held, which includes the child's parent(s), the ISC, the EI Official or Designee (EIO or EIOD), and the evaluator(s), to write the Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP). The IFSP is a legal document which lists the services the child and family shall receive.

Services are provided in a child's natural environment. This means that services may be provided to a child at home, in a mainstream day care/nursery school setting, in a professional's office, or in a therapeutic nursery program. Services may include, but are not limited to speech, physical or occupational therapy, social work and/or psychological counseling, special education, and nursing services.

EI services are provided throughout the calendar year, including summer.

To refer a child for an evaluation or for further information about services provided through your local EI Program, contact:

WESTCHESTER EI Intake Office (914) 813-5094

COMMITTEE ON PRESCHOOL SPECIAL EDUCATION SYSTEM
(CPSE)
(For children 3 to 5 years)

CPSE services are available to eligible children aged 3 to 5 years, by direct referral to the local school district's Committee on Preschool Special Education (CPSE). Each school district employs a professional who serves in an administrative capacity, called the CPSE Chairperson. He or she is available to assist parents through the process of referral, evaluation, eligibility determination, and service delivery.

The parent selects a New York State Education Department-approved evaluation site from a list maintained by the CPSE, to conduct a Multi-Disciplinary Evaluation of their child. After the evaluation, the full CPSE will meet, including the child's parent(s), to review the outcome of the evaluation.

The Committee will determine the child's eligibility for CPSE services, meaning that the extent of his or her disability meets the legal criteria and has an impact on his or her ability to learn or to engage in age-appropriate activities. Any eligible preschool-aged child will be classified as a "preschool student with a disability."

No additional medical or educational diagnosis is required for preschool students to receive CPSE services, even if they have been diagnosed by an independent, licensed or certified professional. CPSE services are provided according to the local school district school year.

A legal document called an Individualized Education Program (IEP) must be written, which lists the services to be provided and the student's individual learning goals. Limited extended school year services are available for 6 weeks during the summer only for children with the most significant disabilities and who exhibit severe regression in skills when services are stopped (as observed and documented by professional service providers).

The services provided to a "preschool student with a disability" as written in his or her IEP, fall along a continuum. The goal is to provide services to every child in his or her Least Restrictive Environment (LRE). This means that the goal for all children is to provide appropriate services with his or her typically developing peers as much as possible, based on his or her individual needs. Service options may include, from least to most restrictive:

- 1-Related Services
- 2-Special Education Itinerant Teacher (SEIT)
- 3-SEIT in combination with Related Services
- 4-Special Class in an Integrated Setting
- 5-Special Class
- 6-Residential Program
